

Mathematics

(www.tiwariacademy.in)

(Chapter 2)(Inverse Trigonometric Functions)

(Class XII)

(Exemplar Problems)

Objective Type Questions

State True or False for the following statement:

Question 51:

The domain of trigonometric functions can be restricted to any one of their branch (not necessarily principal value) in order to obtain their inverse functions.

Answer 51:

True

We know that the domain of trigonometric functions are restricted to their domain to obtain their inverse functions

